Executive Order No. 42, issued 12/18/2014, Amended 7-28-20; Bd. Min 04-22-21.

- A. Purpose: This policy addresses the standard and process to be used when determining whether a faculty member is unable to perform the essential functions of the faculty member's position because of a medical condition and whether a faculty appointment should be terminated for medical reasons. Issues concerning interpretation and application of this policy are to be addressed in the review and determination process stated in this policy and are not subject to further review under the Academic Grievance Procedure in Section 370.010 of the Collected Rules and Regulations. Application of this policy is not intended as a substitute for other University policies or procedures related to performance, including those imposed because of clinical or professional requirements. In addition, application of this policy is not a substitute for discipline or action taken because of performance deficiencies unrelated to ability.

B. Scope: This policy applies to faculty members, either tenure/tenure track or non-tenure track, described in Section 310.020A of the Collected Rules and Regulations of the University of Missouri as holding academic staff appointments. This policy is intended to be consistent with the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Missouri Human Rights Act and should be interpreted to assure compliance with these laws.

C. Special Considerations for Faculty Members: Faculty members have rights that stem from the University's Collected Rules and Regulations, from the application of the general principles of academic freedom, and from the role of faculty members in the shared governance structure within the University of Missouri. This policy is not intended to compromise this special status but rather is intended to clarify and protect the rights of such faculty members and of the University of Missouri and its constituents.

- c. Appeals are not intended to be full re-hearings of the grievance, and therefore the UM System Grievance Officer will be deferential to the Campus Grievance Officer's findings of fact.
 - d. In most cases, appeals will be confined to a review of the written documentation, Grievance Investigation, and relevant documentation regarding the grounds for appeal. The UM System Grievance Officer may solicit additional information if deemed appropriate, including interviews with the Grievant, the Campus Grievance Officer, and others.
 - e. The UM System Grievance Officer may grant an appeal based on new information that was not reasonably available at the time of the Campus Grievance Officer's decision and which materially affects the outcome of the Grievance. The UM System Grievance Officer may make a new decision based on such information or remand the Grievance to the Campus Grievance Officer for reconsideration.
 - f. The UM System Grievance Officer will typically render a decision on the appeal to the Grievant and Campus Grievance Officer within fifteen (15) Business Days after accepting the request for appeal. The UM System Grievance Officer may extend the deadline for issuing a written decision with written notice to the Grievant and Campus Grievance Officer.
 - g. The UM System Grievance Officer's decision is final, and further appeals and grievances are not permitted.
- H. Advisors - Grievants are allowed to have one Advisor of their choice present with them for all Grievance proceedings. The Grievant may select whomever they wish to serve as their Advisor, including an attorney. An Advisor is not required, and a Grievant may elect to proceed without an Advisor. The University is not required to provide a Grievant with an Advisor, and an Advisor's attendance is the Grievant's responsibility. The Advisor may not make a presentation or represent the Grievant in Grievance proceedings. The Grievant is expected to ask and respond to questions on their own. The Advisor may provide the Grievant consultation quietly, in writing, or during a break in the proceedings; however, the Advisor may not speak on behalf of the Grievant. Advisors who do not follow these guidelines will be cautioned or dismissed from the proceeding.
- I. Extensions of Time - For good cause, the Campus Grievance Officer or UM System Grievance Officer may grant reasonable extensions of time for any of the time deadlines in this Grievance Procedure.
- J. Notice - Notice required by this Grievance Procedure may be via the Grievant's university-issued email account or first-class mail to the Grievant's mailing address indicated in University records. If necessary, notice may be via the Grievant's personal email account.
